

Table of Contents

Ursula Lehmkuhl and Gustav Schmidt
Preface	7
The Social Construction of Anglo-American Relations and Cultural Transfer Processes during the Nineteenth Century
David Reynolds
Anglo-American Relations since 1607: Three Historical Paradigms	13
Ursula Lehmkuhl
Creating Anglo-American Friendship: The Great Exhibition of 1851 and the Social Construction of the “Special Relationship”	28
Stephanie Schneider
International Siamese Twins? The Symbolic Representation of Anglo-American Relations in Nineteenth-Century British and American Political Cartoons	53
Frank Schumacher
Lessons of Empire: The United States, the Quest for Colonial Expertise and the British Example, 1898-1917	71
The “Special Relationship” and the Challenges of the Cold War Era: Institutional Constellations and Areas of Conflict and Cooperation
Gustav Schmidt
The “Special Relationship”: How much longer will it last?	101
Gottfried Niedhart
Anglo-American Relations in the Era of Détente and the Challenge of Ostpolitik	115

Beatrice Heuser
The "Special Relationship", Nuclear Strategy and Nuclear Weapons	131
Wolfgang Krieger
The British-American Intelligence Alliance: Very Special Indeed!	153
Heide-Irene Schmidt
Anglo-American Relations and International Monetary Policy, 1958-69	176
Bibliography	213
Notes on Contributors	231